

Certified Knowledge Specialist in Agile and Design Thinking

Overview and Agenda

Includes “KM Foundation” Online Program + 2-day “Master Class” in Agile and Design Thinking

INTRODUCTION

As the field of Knowledge Management has continued to mature, KM practitioners have taken stock of what has worked and what hasn't. Efforts to improve KM projects and yield true results have shown clearly that KM efforts fail when:

- Stakeholders and end users are left out of the design process;
- Initiatives are made overly complex or take too long to show value;
- Experts assume they know the solution, instead of leveraging end users to design and prioritize the true KM needs.

WHAT TO EXPECT

This certification course will provide you with a comprehensive background, methodologies, and facilitation techniques pulling from the best of Agile and Design Thinking approaches. These approaches will provide you with the foundation to:

- Engage a wide array of your end users in the KM strategy, design, prioritization, and implementation effort.
- Move the “KM Conversation” forward within your organization, focusing on business value and outcomes for individuals and the organization as a whole.
- Develop a strategy and roadmap to show iterative progress that will help to develop buy-in and support.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

The Certification course is for anyone being asked to “make KM happen” in their organization. It should be considered by:

- CKO's, Directors, and other KM Managers;
- KM Practitioners (either full or part-time) in charge of collecting requirements, building support, or defining a strategy for KM within their organization; and
- Those interested in taking a leadership role within their organization to help establish or improve KM.
